

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, May 13, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Most incumbents unopposed

Races attract cold \(soft\) cash

Judicial Candidates \(List\)

$1.7B for Miss. in military package

Redistrict plans opposed

Generic drugs, nursing home options top Medicaid session

Miss., others suing Vatican

Editorials

Lobbyists: Soft money flowing to legislators

Gen. Walker: State mourns distinguished leader

Challenge to Lott: Leadership post is worth the fight

Medicaid director desires flexibility

Editorials

Party politics: Ideas and ideals are what matters

Civil rights: Changing symbols at Ole Miss

Mother's Day: Special women, special memories

Editorials

Tuition hike: University fees could rise, again

Bad move: State job agency decision unwise

Made in U.S.?: Enron tax avoidance a bad policy

Schools: Leader more than a cheerleader

Praise for Medicaid leader deserved

State GOP still eyeing legislative parity

Mississippi is already competing globally for good jobs

Speaker is not speaking after losing his tonsils

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

U.S. Chamber trades soft sell for sledgehammer

headline: ReREDISTRICTINGSolo protests must become a chorus

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Eligibility of Medicaid recipients under examination by legislators

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Redistricting process open to criticism

Governor's Medicaid commission meets to study health care issues

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Meridian, Lauderdale County left out of Musgrove committee — Cassreino

• On Mississippi's business climate

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Hospitals measure financial impact on community

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi
Census reinforces state's progress

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

GRENADA ED: Now that he has a doctor opponent for 2003, Representative Donnie Ryals says he supports tort reform

WASHTIMES ED: Mississippi malpractice

Jack Ryan: SMRMC unable to recruit doctors

The New York Times

Dissent in House G.O.P. Forces Leaders to Change Plan for Medicare Drug Benefit

The Washington Post

The Washington Times